DEMOCRATIC PARTY.
This is the way to vote the Straight Democratic Ticket.

Col Allen's Speech.

COL. JOHN R. ALLEN, the brilliant orator and statesman, addressed a large audience Saturday night at the Court house in the interest of Democracy, being introduced by T. E. Moore, Jr., Chairman of the Bourbon County Democratic Committee. Mr. Allen's speech was clean, clear-cut and forcible, and was free from abuse. It was freely said that Mr. Allen's speech was the best that has been heard here for years, and was sure to result in good for the party. Mr. Allen was congratulated by many persons after the speaking.

Gov. Beckham's Tour.

ON Saturday night Gov. Beckham was greeted by an audience which for numbers and enthusiasm has only been exceeded by the meeting at Covington. The Governor made three speeches, two of which were at overflow meetings. At Flemingsburg he spoke in the afternoon to a crowd of 3,500. A parade two miles in length escorted him from Fleming to Flemingsburg, and several brief talks were made at other places, the Governor speaking to about 12,000 people in all during the day. Capt. James Blackburn accompanied him, and also made a number of speeches.

Speaking at Millersburg.

HON. L. H. CARTER, of Lawrenceburg, President of the Kentucky Senate, will speak in Millersburg, Saturday afternoon, November 3d.

Bronston and Moody Coming.

HON. W. B. MOODY, of Eminence, will speak at the Paris court house tomorrow night at half-past seven o'clock. Mr. Moody should have a crowded house.

HON. CHAS. J. BRONSTON, the noted orator, will speak at the court house on Friday night at half-past seven o'clock.

A Hot Wind-Up.

The wind-up in the Indiana campaign will be a hot one. This week Towne, of Minnesota; Stevenson, the Vice Presidential candidate; Jones, of Arkansas; Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky; Gov. Hogg and Congressman Bailey, of Texas, and many others will speak, besides the regular orators. There will be at least one speech in every township. In the cities there will be speaking every night. At least 1,000 orators will be on the stump.

Political Topics.

In touring New York Roosevelt has found such a strong Bryan sentiment that he gets mad and blackguards somebody in nearly every speech.

Hon. John W. Yerkes will speak at Lexington on November 5th.

Five thousand people turned out to hear Democratic orators at Harrodsburg Saturday.

The ocean-to-ocean rally order was carried out by the Kentucky Democrats with rallies of remarkable size and enthusiasm at various places over the State Saturday. The meetings in many instances were the largest ever held in the respective gathering places. Notable crowds were at Frankfort, Harrodsburg, Corinth, Somerset, Campbellsburg, Versailles and elsewhere, and horseback parades of large proportions were features of several of the meetings.

Mr. Bryan will speak October 31 in Ohio, traveling from Toledo to Cincinnati and speaking along the way. November 1st he will speak at Indianapolis and at points on the road to Chicago.

Senator James K. Jones, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, charges that mail addressed to Democratic headquarters is being systematically pillaged.
